

I use the local traffic and weather reports that XM offers to avoid traffic jams almost every morning now (through metro NY traffic). I feel that it is necessary to pay for a service to compensate for the lack of a similar (too many commercials on local stations) service on traditional radio. Elected officials have a duty to protect companies rights, not support established companies that can no longer compete.

Thank you for you time.

Greg Tchilinguirian